

MEET THE EXECUTIVE CHEF

Grand Cafe & Bakery is very pleased that Anthony Kui Sin Vierra is both Executive Chef and one of the partners. Anthony, the great grand son of Mr. Ti Chong Ho, founder of the Grand Cafe & Bakery, graduated from California Culinary Academy, worked at Black Cat in San Francisco, and the award winning 231 Ellsworth restaurant in San Mateo. Returning to Hawaii in 2001, Anthony has been the sous chef at 12th Avenue Grill, The W, and Mermaid Bar.

He brings his skills, talent, creativity, and family ties, to the cafe that his great grandfather started in 1923. Comfort foods and old time island favorites, made with the freshest ingredients, will continue to be the focus. The menu also reflects his own signature dishes. In October 2006, Grand Cafe & Bakery received the Ilima Award - Critics Choice for Best Breakfast. In November 2007 Grand Café & Bakery was a Honolulu Magazine finalist for best bistro - New American Cuisine. In September, 2009 Chef Anthoy was one of the Chefs of Aloha for the Hawaii Restaurant Association's event honoring top restaurant owners and individuals.
